Events

GW Global Women's Institute Launch
Who: GWI at the George Washington University
When: Tue, Nov 27 | 10:30am
Where: The George Washington University
The Cloyd Heck Marvin Center,
Mark C. Abrahms Great Hall
800 21st Street, NW
Washington DC, 20057

The Global Women's Institute aims to support and improve the situation of women and girls worldwide through research, teaching, and engaged service. The launch of the institute will also kick-off a series of events to honor the international 16 Days of Activism against Gender Violence.

Who Takes Care of the Caregivers? Providing Care and Safety for Staff in GBV Settings
Who: Interagency Gender Working Group
When: Thur, Nov 29 | 8:30am-11:30am
Where: International Student House
1825 R Street, NW
Washington, DC 2009

They take care of the survivors of gender-based violence around the world, but what can organizations do to ensure the safety and well-being of their staff? Panelists at this event will examine some of the physical and psycho-social impacts on these caregivers from the trauma of being exposed to heartbreaking stories day in and day out, from the lack of resources and overwhelming case loads.

Online Discussion: LGBTI and Inequalities Post-2015
Who: The World We Want

For more information, please click here.
When: Nov 5 - 30

This on-line discussion focuses on development and rights of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and intersex (LGBTI) people which is part of a collaborative effort between the Global Thematic Consultation on Addressing Inequalities.

Online Discussion: Making the Food System Work for Women
Who: Oxfam
When: Nov 19-30

This online discussion addresses how to achieve food justice for women. It is the first in a series of online discussions to help deepen Oxfam’s understanding of the issues that drive our GROW campaign.

TedXMassAveWomen
Who: TedX Women
When: Mon, Dec 3 | 8:30am - 5pm
Where: John Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies
Rome Auditorium
1619 Mass Ave, NW
Washington DC, 20036

The theme of this year's locally-organized TedXWomen event is "The Space Between" and questions women's power as individuals and within society.

Opportunities

Internship: Sponsorship Operations
Who: Women for Women International
Where: Washington, DC

Internship: Monitoring and Evaluation
Who: Women for Women International
Where: Washington, DC

Program Assistant: Training Team
Who: Hunt Alternatives Fund
Where: Washington, DC or Cambridge, MA

Conference: Feminist Leadership, Movement Building, and Rights Institute - South Asia
Who: CREA
Where: Kathmandu, Tibet
Deadline: Dec 10

Call for Papers: Gender and Social Movements
Who: Women and Environment International Magazine
Deadline: Dec 21

"Femicide in Central America: Is creating female-friendly zones the solution?" Read more @VitalVoices
Resources

"Haunts: The agony of Savita Halappanavar"
Savita Halappanavar died, or was killed, because an Irish hospital refused to perform a medically necessary abortion until they were absolutely positively sure the fetal heartbeat had stopped. The life of the monster was of no concern.

Bosnia to South Sudan: Gender Mainstreaming Techniques within Education Systems in Post-Conflict States
As South Sudan rebuilds its state as a modern democracy, the difficulty of gender equality arises: How will it surmount gender inequality deeply entrenched in its society and, specifically, its education systems? Educational gender mainstreaming in Bosnia and Herzegovina (BiH) is a feasible model in South Sudan’s resurgence.

From Ignorance to Inclusion: Gender-Responsive Multilateral Adaptation Investments in the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) Region
Gender Action and the Heinrich Böll Foundation's newly released report exposes women's persistent marginalization from climate adaptation projects.

Africa: Mobile Phones Set to Improve Family Planning
Use of mobile phone technology is set to become health issues' information gateway, especially on family planning and reproductive health.

By Choice, Not By Change: Family Planning, Human Rights and Development
Family planning is a human right. Yet today some 222 million women in developing countries are unable to exercise that right because they lack access to contraceptives, information and quality services or because social and economic forces prevent them from taking advantage of services even where they are available.

Videos

GGP Event on Migrant Workers in Southeast Asia: Challenges Programs and Best Practices
- Keynote address from Ambassador Melanne Verveer
- Panel One: Social Protection: Policy Challenges and Potential Solutions at the Policy Level
Panel Two: The Challenges of Providing Effective Services and Best Practices

Carrying the Ideal: Women Human Rights Defenders
The film documents the courageous and often dangerous work of women defenders carried out in a climate of impunity and injustice and in a social strata supportive of caste and gender discrimination.